

Youth & Seniors

The SMART Reduced Fare Program enables older adults (65+) and youths (6-18 years) to ride Fixed Route bus routes at a reduced rate. The Reduced Fare ID Card is a convenient and quick way to assure you'll receive the appropriate reduced fare. Other forms of identification to verify age may be used in place of the Reduced Fare ID Card (see below). Simply fill out the application on the back of this form and send in the appropriate documentation for verification purposes.

Youth ID Card

The Youth Reduced Fare ID Card entitles youths ages 6 to 18 years old a $1.00 one-way fare and 25¢ transfer on SMART Fixed Route.

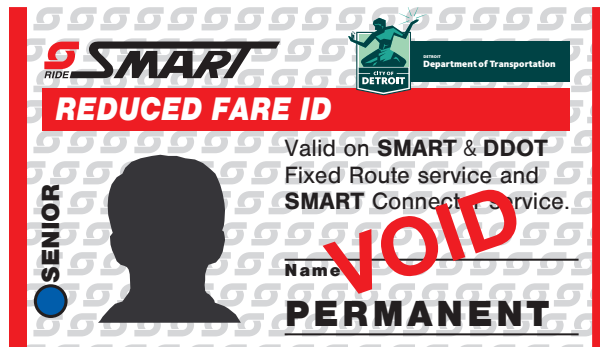

The following may also be used when boarding SMART to verify age:

- School ID that includes photograph and date of birth
- State of Michigan ID
- State of Michigan Drivers License

Senior ID Card

The Senior Reduced Fare ID Card entitles adults age 65 years and older a 50¢ one-way fare with free transfer on SMART Fixed Route and $1.00 one-way fare on SMART Connector with free transfer. SMART and DDOT accept each agency's Reduced Fare ID Card on Fixed Route buses. Detroit residents must apply through the Detroit Department of Transportation (DDOT) for their Senior Reduced Fare ID Pass Card.

The following may also be used when boarding SMART to verify age:

- State of Michigan Driver's license
- State of Michigan ID
- Medicare Card with picture ID
